JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant or Associate Professor, Non-Tenure Track

Employer/ Agency: University of Vermont Extension

Job Description: The University of Vermont Child Welfare Training Partnership and University of Vermont Extension invites applications for a faculty position in our Rutland Extension Office.

The Vermont Child Welfare Training Partnership (CWTP) was established in 1993 as a cooperative effort between the University of Vermont's Department for Social Work in the College of Education and Social Services and The State of Vermont's Department for Children and Families (DCF). Its goal is to improve the quality of child welfare practice and outcomes for children through improved parenting capacity in Vermont by providing relevant research, education and training. CWTP offers learning opportunities for Vermont foster, adoptive and kin parents around the state. It does so in collaboration with the DCF's Family Services Division, the Vermont Adoption Consortium, and UVM Extension.

Centered in the heart of the Green Mountain State, Rutland County is well-known for its pristine beauty and its year-round outdoor recreational opportunities. As Vermont's second largest city, Rutland provides the region with a thriving historic downtown, a variety of businesses and services including a regional library, numerous clubs, churches, a regional medical center, fine schools including colleges and a technical education center.

Qualifications: Candidates with a PhD in social work or closely-related field, with experience in foster/adoptive parenting and kin caring are preferred. Candidates with a Masters and significant relevant experience will be considered. A strong commitment to meet the Land Grant mission of extending knowledge and research to the people of the State and thereby contribute to the sustainable and long-term social and economic development of communities is required.

The successful candidate will also embrace on-line provision of educational materials and coursework, including developing and implementing a web-based teaching environment for curricula and keeping aware of and appropriately using evolving Internet / social networking / Web 2.0 communication technologies.

Salary/Hours: This is a 12-month, 0.80 FTE non-tenure track appointment represented by the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Salary and level of appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.
