

NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

Assistant Professor, Social Work: Applications are being accepted for two full-time tenure track social work faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning Fall 2010. Primary responsibilities include teaching a variety of social work courses including policy, practice and HBSE within an international focus. One of the positions is for the Director of Field Education, requiring knowledge of the Chicago Metropolitan area communities and agencies. An interest in online and blended education is desirable. This position may include teaching at the main campus, the Northeastern Illinois University Jacob H. Carruthers' Center for Inner City Studies and El Centro. The Northeastern Illinois University Social Work Program is a CSWE accredited Bachelor's Social Work Program. "Position pending budgetary approval. An AA/EOE."

Qualifications: Requirements for consideration include two-year post-MSW practice experience, and an earned doctorate in social work or a related field. Candidates should have a commitment to teaching, as well as scholarship and research.

Submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, transcript, a statement of teaching philosophy, and research plan (not to exceed two pages), and three letters of reference (one addressing teaching ability or potential) to:

Jade Stanley, MSW, Ed.D, Chair
Social Work Program
Northeastern Illinois University
5500 North St. Louis
Chicago, Il 60625
j-stanley@neiu.edu