JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Social Work Professor (1 Full Time, 1 Part Time)

Employer/ Agency: St. Augustine College – Chicago, IL

Job Description: St. Augustine College in Chicago, Ill. Is seeking one full time faculty for the Department of Social Work and at least one part-time faculty member (for night or Saturday work). St. Augustine College is a private-non-profit college whose mission is to establish an educational bridge for those who do not speak English so that they can succeed in college and build stronger communities. The school has open admission and entry level courses are offered in Spanish and English. SAC has a fully accredited social work program for the Bachelor's in Social Work degree. All full time faculty are expected to teach 4 courses per semester and conduct course assessments.

Qualifications: Applicants must have a Master's degree or higher from a regionally accredited university in the field of social work and 2 years of Master's level social work experience. Teaching experience in the field is desired and experience working with diverse populations in the field of social work. Service to the community is required above and beyond the class teaching load. Applicants who are fluent in Spanish and English are preferred. Willingness to work according to a flexible schedule (night classes and some Saturday classes are offered). Flexibility to serve several campus locations in the Chicago metropolitan area is desired. Faculty are being hired to teach introductory level social work classes, social work values and ethics, social work practice methods, and introductory research methods.

Salary/Hours: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.
