Corrine Walijarvi, MSW
LEO Mentor

Corrine is a doctoral student at the University of Houston Graduate College of Social Work. She received her MSW from GCSW in May 2008. Prior to entering the field of social work, she earned an MBA from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, and pursued a management career at General Motors and General Electric.

Corrine is now working as a Doctoral Research Assistant with Dr. Monit Cheung. She is the LEO (Learning Enhancement Opportunity) Mentor for CWEP students. Her research interests include the impact of traumatic losses on the development of children, and the development of effective operating and strategic plans for non-profit organizations.
